BOARD CHAIR CHIEF EXECUTIVE

We are pleased to present the ILT (Group) 2024 Year in Review.

Once again this has been a uniquely challenging year for our industry. Our organisation faced these challenges well however, and the financial results and organisational outcomes outlined within this report are those that our community can be proud of.

In what was a tale of two halves, revenues for the year were up a solid 4% to over $111 million. Our financial year began with demand for our services remaining high, but our ability to satisfy this demand being challenged by the stubbornly low unemployment rate. As an organisation we did very well in supplementing our talent pool with highly skilled migrant labour. Unfortunately, as quickly as we had resolved the labour shortage issues, demand then began to markedly shift in the latter part of the financial year, as high inflation and a growing cost-ofliving crisis began to bite.

The effects of this, along with significant supplier cost increases, squeezed our margins and put considerable pressure on our overall result. This was further compounded by a record high depreciation cost. It was therefore pleasing to generate a pre-tax and Donations surplus that was up 9% on the year prior to $6.619 million.

This enabled Donations for the year, at $3.277 million, to be up $767k or more than 30% on the year prior. This contributed to the total of Donations from ILT Group exceeding $9 million for the first time in 10 years, a total that was $737k or almost 9% higher than the year prior. This commendable outcome supported a huge range of groups across sectors within our community.

Paddy O'Brien Chris Ramsay Chair Chief Executive

The future of ILT looks strong. This strength is born from you, the people of Invercargill, our shareholders. Your support of our businesses is the reason our Board can make the positive, impactful funding decisions that they do. Whether it be continuing to ensure our children learn to swim for free, or our significant ILT Group support of Te Unua Museum of Southland (so far at $1 million), ILT truly is for our community.

Thanks FROMUS

Our 'people first' approach has been maintained throughout the year. Overall staff levels peaked at just over 720, and our turnover rate indicates that the value of working for ILT is being recognised by those who matter-our people. It has also been very pleasing to help develop the hospitality superstars of the future through our improved training and development initiatives, resulting in excellent internal progression, promotion, and tangible career pathways.

Delivering over $9 million in returns to the community is an incredible achievement, especially in the current economic climate. As a board, we are immensely proud of the outstanding efforts of our ILT family during the past year. Your commitment and dedication help us continue to be market leaders in the hospitality industry, and your efforts ensure community benefits are at a level that makes a real difference. ## SUPPORTING Our Community

ILT FOUNDATION Update

Set up by ILT in 2006, the foundation's key purpose is to re-distribute community funding generated through the 153 gaming machines in 9 ILT Venues to benefit the City of Invercargill and its residents.

In 18 years of operation, the ILT Foundation (ILTF) has redistributed almost $99 million in grants to the local community.

Grants returned to the community for the year ended 31 March 2024 totalled $5,838,939.

ILT Foundation continues to focus on ensuring the greatest level of funding is returned to the community through a prudent operational structure and careful cost management. The recent employment of a Grants Manager to offer further in-person support to our applicants through the application and accountability processes has added a layer to the commitment to maximise returns to the community from operations.

ILTF remains committed to managing a socially responsible gaming operation with gambling harm awareness and harm minimisation a priority focus.

Training is a key focus along with keeping up-to-date with new technologies available to integrate into our venues to assist with our commitment of care to keep players safe.

Manager, ILT Foundation

GROUP FINANCIAL Performance

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2024

The consolidated group consists of:

OVERVIEW

- ILT recorded a higher level of profit before donations and tax of $6.683 million as compared to $6.125 million in 2023.
- Value of Associated Company: The value of the Trust's investment in DB South Island Brewery Ltd increased by $751,000 (compared to a $323,000 decrease recorded last year).
- The ILT Foundation recorded a surplus totalling $5.317 million (funds available for redistribution), this was down from $5.587 million last year.
- The level of grants made to the community for the year totalled $9.116 million compared to $8.379 million last year.

- ILT's Tax Expense for the year ended 31 March 2024 is $11.404 million. This is made up of Income Tax Payable of $1.058 million and a Change in Deferred Income Tax of $10.346 million.
- This Change in Deferred Income Tax is a result of the Government enacting legislation on 28 March 2024 that changes the Depreciation for Commercial Buildings, with a useful life of 50 years or more, to a depreciation rate of 0% for the financial year starting 1 April 2024. This change in legislation will impact every business that owns commercial buildings in the country.
- For comparison, the Tax Expense for 2023 was $1.241 million. This was made up of Income Tax Payable of $1.633 million and a Change in Deferred Tax of a Credit of $392,000.

Excitement is building as the new Te Unua Museum of Southland begins to take shape. With the iconic pyramid now part of history, attention turns to the construction of the contemporary space that will share Southland's taonga and stories for generations to come.

ILT has a proud history of supporting key facilities and landmarks in Invercargill, and this significant community project is no exception. ILT Group kick started the museum's funding with a $500,000 commitment, and despite challenging operational conditions, the board approved an additional $500,000 this financial year.

This $1 million investment illustrates ILT's support of Te Unua, part of Invercargill City Council's Project 1225, aptly named to reflect the museum's base rebuild deadline of December 2025.

The project also includes the Te Pātaka Taoka Southern Regional Collections Facility, completed in December 2023, and the newly opened Te Moutere Tuatara Island in Queens Park, which welcomed its first visitors in June. Members of the public can look forward to the museum's opening in the second half of 2026 once the fit-out is complete.

Recently released design plans reveal more details about this exciting new development for Southland. Te Unua Museum of Southland Director Eloise Wallace said the design showed a contemporary facility set to revitalise Invercargill's cultural offering and provide a world-class museum experience for locals and tourists.

"The developed design is one that we can see Southlanders really connecting with, it fits beautifully into the landscape of Queens Park and is the modern, revitalised and impressive facility we set out to create."

The name Te Unua, bestowed by Waihōpai Rūnaka, captures the spirit and heritage of the area, ensuring the museum will be a source of pride and inspiration for generations to come. The design has been guided by a cultural compass, incorporates Southland's natural features and reflects the region's waterways.

ILT chair Paddy O'Brien shares the community's enthusiasm for this project, saying, "It will be a tremendous asset for our community and we can't wait to see it all come together.

Three years ago, four pupils at New River Primary School showed an interest in learning the ukulele. Little did they know at the time what they had just sparked.

Although their teacher Paula O'Neill was not particularly musically inclined, she launched a basic ukulele programme to satisfy their budding interest.

The following year, as these initial students continued their musical journey, interest began to spread, including with the students' parents. Under the guidance of their dedicated teachers around 60 students have now embraced the ukulele.

This growing passion for music extended beyond the ukulele when one student, eager to advance, taught himself guitar. This inspired others to explore guitar as well. However, the school faced a challenge as they didn't have the guitars available to cater to the growing interest.

Their teacher Rebecca Jordan was determined to find a solution and reached out to ILT for a grant. ILT's board enthusiastically agreed, providing funding to purchase 14 smaller guitars, more suitable for young children's needs.

Miss Jordan expressed her delight with the new equipment, saying, "I'm all about giving our kids opportunities, and with the help of ILT, we can reach so many more things."

ILT board member Suzanne Prentice, a musical icon, visited the school to see the impact firsthand. She was pleased by the positive influence of music on the students' lives. "It is great to see these kids learning at the perfect age," Prentice said. "It is wonderful to see something tangible coming from one of our grants."

The introduction to the ukulele and guitar may well spark a lifetime love of music amongst some at New River Primary School.

Ms O'Neill noted that embracing the students' interest was about more than just music.

"On the first day they pick up a ukulele, they can't even strum. Yet within six weeks, they are playing songs".

"If they persevere, they will get it. We transfer that lesson into school to say, 'If you practice at any skill, you will achieve it and get better at it'. So, what you have learned here you can apply to maths and to reading."

Celebrating Five Decades of Purpose & People

Matt and Mary Ellen

"It's more than just giving people a job. We're providing our team with worthwhile employment and making them feel valued." For fifty years, Recycle South has been a shining example of inclusion in our community, providing valuable employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities while contributing to the city's environmental efforts.

Their 50th anniversary this year was marked by various festivities including an awards evening that recognised the "quiet achievers" and those with "X Factor".

Recycle South general manager, Hamish McMurdo emphasises that the awards night is all about their people, many of whom may not have achieved in other places.

"They're proud to come to work, they're committed, and they should be recognised for that. Plus, they love a good party."

Previously known as Southland Disability Enterprises, Recycle South has worked tirelessly to create an environment where employees find meaningful employment, gain independence and learn essential life skills.

A great example of the opportunities available to staff is the option to complete a Supported Learning Certificate, through SIT, while they work. The course includes various topics like communication, hygiene and safety.

With around 120 employees, 80 of whom are people with disabilities, providing support is essential. Shelley Clark, the People and Capability Manager, plays a crucial role as she oversees the pastoral care and support.

Describing the team as a "big family", Shelley says, "Our commitment extends beyond the workplace. We also have a full social calendar, we arrange outings to the movies for them, hold discos and go ten pin bowling. We have a lot of fun together."

As an organisation they are future-focused and the addition of the further processing plant, means they are leading the charge in recycling agricultural waste and bale wrap.

Hamish McMurdo says people would be surprised by the scope of their operation.

"We have grown from having a staff of 8 to now having a team of over 100. But it's more than just giving people a job. We're providing our team with worthwhile employment and making them feel valued."

Paddy O'Brien, ILT president, expresses pride in being able to support Recycle South, another community minded organisation.

"They have made significant contributions to the city's environmental endeavours, but more importantly, they continue to provide employment opportunities for people with disabilities," he said.

Next time you recycle, remember the amazing individuals behind the scenes at Recycle South, whose hard work and dedication contribute to a more sustainable future. Plus, they're a fantastic bunch of people!

Investing in the Future

98% Reduction in Carbon Emmissions saving around

1000t of CO2 annually, thanks to Biomass Boiler Conversion

The past year has been remarkable for ILT, with several key milestones reached on our sustainability journey. One of the most significant achievements was converting the Ascot Park Hotel boiler from coal to woodchip. This conversion signalled the end of our reliance on coal and reduced the hotel's carbon emissions by 98%, saving around 1000t of CO2 annually.

But we didn't stop there. We've continued to reinvest in Ascot Park Hotel, upgrading the reception, foyer area, and quest rooms to ensure our premier conference and events centre remains top-notch.

The refurbishment of ILT's Head Office included installing solar panels for the first time in ILT's history, showcasing our commitment to improving energy efficiencies and reinvesting in our businesses.

Digital innovation was also a key focus this year and we implemented several back-office changes to boost operational efficiency and profitability. Our quests will have noticed that we also introduced Me&U (formerly known as Mr Yum) for at-table digital ordering and Volty phone charging stations across our bars and taverns to enhance service.

These efforts highlight our dedication to sustainability and innovation while maintaining returns and keeping community support front and centre. With over $9 million given back to the community last year, we're thrilled to continue achieving our goals and making a positive impact.
